The Bearcat Spikers had a good season this year ending with a strong 4th place finish and a record of 6 wins and 3 losses. The team was led by seniors Diane Taylor and Tracy Slavin, Juniors Leona Ogo and Jo Kiliany, and sophomores Liz Berger, Kathy Reschke and Chris Minto. With the exception of Diane Taylor and Tracy Slavin, everyone on the Bearcat team will be returning and

This year's water polo team had a trying season due to the lacking of

Experienced Players

The varsity team was kept afloat by Gordon Gottsche, Ken Schwartz, John Hastings, and special effort by Jeff Nave and All league player Kevin Lynch. The Frosh-Soph team was saved from drowning by All League team captain Jim Nave.

Light-Weight Basketball

Despite their efforts, the lightweight basketball team had a dissapointing season. The C team is to a better season next year after ending this season with a 1-8 record. Leading the team were Bobby Matsumoto, Tim Wong, and All League Ed Kertel. The D team paced by Steve Epstein did not perform up to expectations and ended the season with a winless record.

Between duck-duck-goose and San Mateo's first boys C.C.S. Champion, the cross country team had an exciting season. The Varsity team, led by Matt Colner and Matt Giusto, saw Giusto win the league, the region and the C.C.S. - first time in

The J.V. team also ran well, headed by Ed Yarborough, Justin Siterch and Andy Lev

Varsity Basketball

This year's Varsity Basketball team was lead by seniors Richard Jett, Tony Gladney, Martin Comacho, Kenny Trapp and juniors Kiki Jackson and Pat Maley. Although the team was 3-7 in the league, and 8 and 14 overall, the team gained a lot of experience

The team's defense was rated second in the county and only missed the playoffs by two games. But with so much experience gained, the team has a good chance to capture the championship next year.

Girl's Basketball

This years Girls Basketball team opened their season with a resounding victory over Sequoia. The young team was the showcase for the talents of Keith Aruda, Leona Ogo, and Ann Buerhous, during a Chris Minto, Kelli Arruda, Anne Buerhaus, Gina Savage, Leona Ogo, Lisa Hamilton, Caria Wynter, Shewonita Jackson, Joy Pratt, Janet Mondani, Debbie Mignola.

Boy's Soccer

San Mateo's soccer team had a fairly successful season, with a 4-4-1 record-just missing the PAL round-robin playoff tournament. The full-time starting seniors were fullbacks-Jordan Lee and Brent Schmick, forward-Robert Labrador, leading goal scorer-Greg Turtleaub, Charlie Thorndike, Dave D'Amour, Dan Freeman, Dave Hessel, and Jeff Spiegelman.

Flag Football

The Varsity Flagball team finished their season with an 6-2 record. The team was in fine shape until two of the starting seniors were injured.

But they both got back in time to finish off the season. Melissa Meggan, a starting Quarterback, only a sophomore, co-led the team with her passing skills. The team Captains were Tracy Slavin and Katie Sanford who led the team to most of their victories. The Bearcats have the most highly rated receivers in P.A.L. and the efforts of the following players should be recognized: Stacey Cevolani, Shari Owyang, Carey Wykoff, Kathy Reachke, and All-Mpl linebacker Tracy "froglegs" Slavin! The running backs gained over 3,000 yards, and scored half the touch-downs.!

Boys Tennis

Through the past few years the tennis team has been pretty strong but hasn't shown the strength in the winning column. This year we did show the strength with Mark Kreissmen, Rich Wurlitzer, Charlie Thorndike, Eric Schnurfeil, and Marc Wakasa. The team has a good chance to do very well and to go into the playoffs. The matches are going to have to be won by the good play of the doubles teams of Paul Cotton, Jose Delgado; Will Marks and Sean McVeigh

Badminton

The girl's Badminton Team, with little prior experience, is ready to challenge the district. Although most of the players haven't played together before, they have been able to learn to cooperate with each other in a short time. Already they have beaten Carlmont and Westmoor and looks forward to future games. Since all of the top players have graduated last year, the new birdwatchers are left to the juniors and sophomores to face the new season.

The singles team is led by Sueyin Wong and the number one doubles consists of Debbie Kristofferson and Shannon Sprague. Ever since Ms. Cole left on sabbatical, Alanzo Emery has taken over, with the help of Sarah Escher. The team now looks forward to a prosperous season.

The San Mateo girl's soccer team, the youngest in the league, received lessons in high level soccer by playing six of their ten league games against the Central Coast Section Powerhouses, Menlo Atherton, Woodside and Carmel.

Kelly Miranda, the only starting senior excelled at this part gaining all league honors, second team Juniors, Molly Brodie, all league and Susan Ametzel along with a host of sophomores led by Kim Costantino, La-Sa Shore, Kris Ohman and Lauren Reidl, provided this nucleus of a team that shows promise of contending for next years playoffs. All league's Barbie Alvary and Rusty Moore along with an outstanding goalie, Myessa Sandefur, led the Fresh Soph Team.

Track

This year's track team had a season filled with

Victories

Carla Wynter excelled in sprints, while Dwayne Daniels and Richard Jett led the weight and horizontal jumping events respectively. Darryl Lsher continued to set records while William Carter and Robert Crandall led the Frosh-Soph team. The team was coached by coach Jackson and coach Dooley.

Boys Swimmim

This years varsity swimteam was lead by senior swimmers Jeff Nave and Chris Manolis, other leaders included varsity swimmer John Doorlay. With the help of Norman Gennaro and sophomore Jeff Dao, the varsity team boasts a good chance at the P.A.L. title. The frosh-soph team lead by sophomores John Hastings and Jim Nave, shows lots of talent. Instead of the familiar face of coach Holman, The team welcomed a new coach, Dan McGarry. Boys

Gymnastics

Although the San Mateo boys' gymnastics team has only two seniors, the squad can be regarded as the team to beat in the PAL competition.

The veterans, Kevin Jow and Doug Henry, will provide the leadership and experience in their 1983 campaign.

The other all-around performer will be junior Aaron Spielman, who, like Jow will compete in all six events.

Girls Gymnastics

The girls varsity squad is a young one. All three of the all-around performers are Sophomores Maria Melko, Nancy Fitzgerald and Julie Martin. The remainder of the squad: Connie Arthur, Cynthia Jackson, Allison Brayer and Sioblan O'Conner are all Juniors. By virtue of this young talent, Coach Laurie D'Elia can be guaranteed of successful seasons for at least the next two years.

When high school days have come and gone,
Its memories will linger on. Days to cherish and
remember, seem to start with each September.
Junior year passed, some knowing our school song.
Wow! Junior year, we've waited so long. Friendships have blossomed, we found something new.

Learning not to quit until we're through. Our spirit rose with each event that passed, we shared our tears and plenty of laughs. Each new year

we sought a chance to see our dreams become reality.
Suddenly one standing day, we realized the outer world is on the way. We fought back, they fought and here I am. San Mateo High was found it through
you. With high school days have come and gone,
its memories will linger on. Days to cherish and
remember, seem to start with each September.

Tom O'Brian

Tom O'Brian, a senior, became very interested in acting while a sophomore at Serra High School. Tom transferred to San Mateo and has enjoyed many opportunities in the dramatic arts. He has been in many community theatre productions and recently played Lt. Joe Cable in the school's production of South Pacific.

Tom has taken classes at the American Conservatory Theatre in San Francisco. He recently beat out 250 other actors for roles in both "Queen for a Day" and the West Coast Premiere of "The Holdup" at the Geary Theatre.

Tom plans to pursue his acting career in Los Angeles after graduation.

Some of the things that have made me class dare devil in the eyes of others are: eating goldfish, which is a pre-game type for water polo and to get the other team psyched out-which was one reason for our 1-11 record in 1981. I have to swallow the fish whole and head first so they don't get stuck.

Doing flips (front and back) from the bridges of Foster City have been looked on as crazy. I have been inspired by the competitive spirit between Kevin Lynch and myself. The water is about 7 ft.

deep and I end up about 1 foot in the mud. I go so fast that I don't feel anything, and my eyes are closed because of the soot water.

Driving through the Park atop Jamie Merchant's VW has also earned me the position of dare-devil. Hooking my feet to his sun roof, I stay secured to the car. I like the scenery and it's exhilarating!

I enjoy being daring and risky-if something hasn't been done, I'll attempt it.

Mojdeh Yusef

I lived in Iran for 12 years where I went to an American school. At the start of 8th grade I was forced to move to France because of the Iranian Revolution. At first, I went to an American school but after the first year I changed schools and went to a French school. Two years ago my family decided to move to the U.S. and it was then that I came to San Mateo High.

I have attended many different schools and therefore have experienced varied things. Although my school in Iran was very similar to SMHS, there are some things that separates them. Clothing was no different from here, but if a girl were to go to school today in Iran she would have to wear a veil. Since a great shock occurred during the time I lived in Nice, France. My school was very strict and the teachers had the right to hit you (if you were a male). A girl would get yelled at and humiliated in front of the class for any misbehavior. School started at 9 and would end around 6. Tenth grade students were divided into 2 classes-the Math and Science class and the Literature and Econ. Class. By the time one was in 12th grade, each student had chosen his/her career and would be put in the class of his/her choice, depending on the major decided upon. I really liked the morning greetings which was a friendly kiss on the cheeks. Even saying good-bye you got a kiss. However, I must say that San Mateo and its people are very friendly and I'm glad to graduate from this school.

I am the teacher for the advanced computer science class, along with Tim Iverson. We started the class by writing letters and calling students to see if people would be interested in participating in a computer class. We teach the students the concepts of computers so they can gain an idea of how to operate computers in the business area and be prepared for the computer era. In the near future, the majority of people will need to know how to operate computers which will be used in almost every occupation and field. Seeing the accomplished work and finished labs from the students gives me great pleasure and satisfaction.

Amir Riahi

Amir, a courageous, energetic, and talented senior will not be forgotten at SMHS. Nothing seems to be impossible for Amir without his sight, which he has shown through his involvement in baseball, wrestling, swimming, running around the track, band, and his involvement in school activities. Amir is truly remarkable.

Luba Zygarewicz

I was born in Chile and I went to Bolivia with my family where we lived for 15 years. The reason for my family coming here in 1980 was that our relatives lived here and they wanted us to live close to them. The area, the language, the customs, and the people are totally different. Coming from a German school where I had to take 16 subjects at the same time each year, to SMHS with only 6 subjects was very boring. There, we took Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Accounting, etc. since freshmen up to senior I only understood about $\frac{1}{4}$ of what was said in class here and I was not used to moving to a different room every period. In Bolivia, we stayed in "our" room and the teachers came to the class.

Going to Burlingame High for the spring semester of my sophomore year was an interesting experience. I learned quite a lot of English in the ESL program; however, any extra involvement such as gymnastics, student gov't., etc., were not allowed there for foreign students.

San Mateo High was very different. I had to know English, and get adjusted to the place and people. Not until the end of my junior year when the elections occurred, did I know that there was a student gov't. In my school, each class had its own Pres., V.P., Sec., and Delegate. A class is all the people in the same room. We did not have names for the classes like "seniors", "juniors", etc., we use IMA up to 4MA.

The people here are very different and it's taking me a long time to adjust to American culture. People here seem to be more superficial in their relationships and I believe it is due to the strong competition that exists here. I think this forces people to think more in the "me" idea, and to fight the battles by themselves. In Bolivia, machines aren't used as much as they are here. Mankind is used more and this makes people seek the help of their fellowman.

I do miss my school, the poetry group I started, my position in school (class Pres. twice, Sec., and Del) and some customs we had for the weekends.

The San Mateo High School Marching Band, led by Director John Houghand, received a Gold Medal of Excellence rating for the fourth consecutive year at the CMEA Band Festival. The band will participate in the County and Festival competitions. The eight-five member band, directed by Mr. Henry Lee, hosted the North Marching Band review, performed an original show for the 1990 Big Game play, and will perform at Santa Claus Parade. It featured a variety of other particular events. Look for a lot of fun, excitement and spirit.

Enns from now we will all look and laugh about the way we dressed, looked, and acted during our four or five + years here at San Mateo. These "laughable memories" we enjoyed are preserved within this book (not always with great artistic merit or creative beauty) will jog our aged minds enough to force a smile to our faces or blush to our cheeks. Grayed hair (and with varying degrees of senility we will pick this book up out of some cluttered box (possibly full of comic books, empty bottles, dried flowers, records, and old uniforms that we wish we could still fit in), blow the dust off the orange cover, vaguely remembering the school colors (orange and black.), and begin the process known as reminiscing.

I had a long night last night and the possibility of slightly changing history is not far fetched, yet, I will attempt, as I sit here on the final day of yearbook production, to briefly recap the year as I saw it, if I saw it, and if when I saw it I understood it. As I say to my Psychoanalyst "Well it, first started when I came to school the first day..."

One day, long, long ago on a very rainy day I went to the library to jog my memory of the happenings of 82-83, it was then I came to the realization that to properly write about 82-83 it would be necessary to recall the moments that we would sooner forget. Hopefully by the time I read this again we as a race will have learned how to stop destroying one another and will live in peace. Good-bye John, Leonid, Henry, Grace, Leroy, Bess, Ingrid, and Dornesbury. We will miss you all. Sorry to depress you but it was important to recall some of bitter memories; they were a part of 82 and 83 too. As we step clear of the gloomy blackness that marred 82-83 I will attempt to now save all of you who are now suicidal by presenting the more pleasant moments of this past year.

It all began with tepeeing of San Mateo High School with invisible toilet paper. What can one say without getting into trouble legally because it is impossible for me to write about parties, otherwise. The year began after a very disappointing first day but quickly developed into an amusing escape. I imagine if you will, October, hugging & tramping in the halls, Halloween, Night of the Living Dead, and who could forget the Grid, the US Festival or the who?

After too many grams, the rain, slam dancing on TV/20, UASB, victory at the Little Big Game, kite flying I can honestly be grateful that ET got home. Congratulations Chuck; bye MASH, way to go Bearcat, and see you at the races Andy Koo.

The Year

This is a good year for people who don't care a hoot about being in or out. It is a year when it really is out to be in. And being in, for the really in, is out.

So it is no surprise that hanging upside down is preferred to sitting right side up, being dot-ty beats having dash and being smoked has it all over getting marinated (Being pickled gets you nowhere.)

It is no longer cool to dip with friends in a hot tub, better to go it alone in a tank. Being rich permits you to dress spare, which costs more. It is OK to be in a funk, as long as the funk isn't punk. Minis are in or out depending on where your knees are.

The only thing surely out is '82, but that is only until some wise one decides it is back in. Here is an up to the minute list of what is in (in left column) and what, besides '82, is out.

"South Pacific" was an extraordinary production with talent and determination. The vivacious 47-member cast were on top of their lines and seemed to reach those high notes throughout the play. A large and wildly enthusiastic house greeted the Rodgers and Hammerstein's classic to see an excellent cast unfold the poignant story of a middle-aged French planter and a young American nurse caught up in all the horror and heartbreak of World War II. The success of the play is also contributed to the stage and lighting crew, the orchestra directed by Mr. Henry Use, and the devoted and determined director Roy Casstevens.

FIRESIDE CHAT #1

It's been a rad year. I'd like to thank all my fellow officers, council members, friends, teachers, administration, and the student body for tolerating me during the past year. We had an interesting year filled with many unusual happenings. I believe that no matter how far apart we have drifted at times during the year in the long run we have grown closer together and have begun the process that will make us truly great people. I believe that the memories of this past will be reflected upon by each of us as something very special. I know I can end my four years here at San Mateo truly believing that there is no better high school and unequaled student body. I am proud that I have been able to be apart of this high school. I will miss you all and this school very much

Thanks Love,

Kurt Norman

SAN MATEO HIGH ELM STAFF

Creating a book that represents an entire school year of activity is far from easy which those on the yearbook staff soon found out. We have tried to show San Mateo High as it is. We hope we have given you a book which will help you keep the previous memories you have collected this year! Till we meet again!

What do you think of the Cafeteria?

I don't think they could have a cafeteria. They should have a formal restaurant with long dresses and tux's required. Lobster as the main dish and chef salads. Their soup of the day, should always be onion. Don't forget the New York steaks!
